CHURCH IN PRISON

A prisoner asked if God had forgiven him. I told him,
"Yes, 2,000 years ago on the Cross."
He hugged me, I gave him a Bible, encouraged him to read and believe in God's forgiveness.

THE PRISONER'S JOURNEY

“Every time I come and talk with you, I feel God’s presence giving me peace. In these few minutes, my heart becomes calm. That’s why I come... because here I find peace”

"Thank you, because I don't have a brother, but you have been like one to me."

“The bars to protect me and my children from violence arrived today, exactly when my ex-husband was released and there is a risk he may want to harm us again”

"For me, Dream Academy was more than learning, it was joy, memories, and family. I leave stronger, wiser, and grateful, knowing this is just the beginning of many dreams."

SECURED CHILDHOOD

“Listen... this is my fifth year at camp.
It’s the one week each year when I feel equal, accepted,
and loved, and I didn’t want to miss it”

“Here I learned that forgiveness doesn’t make me weak, it sets me free.”

WINTER
PROJECT

"The mother began to cry when she saw us and said, "God is great!"
"We were just talking about dinner with the children and we had nothing - then you came to our door. God provides,"

BAPTISM

Four men were baptized in prison,
boldly declaring their decision to start a new life with Jesus Christ.
